

Brown's Paw Prints

February 10th – 14th, 2014

Science

We have 3 Painted Lady butterflies in our butterfly cage! Yeah! The students have enjoyed all the changes and recording those in their journals. We need to wait a few more weeks before we let them go as it is too cold for them at this time.

We will celebrate Valentine's Day on the 14th in our classroom. The students have art from 2:00-2:45 then they will come back and pass out their valentines and enjoy some snacks. If you would like to donate something for our snacks that day please email or call me and let me know. Thank you!
